

IRELAND SHORT BIO

Ireland is an award winning singer/songwriter from the DFW area who brings an authentic indie-folk experience to every project. Her distinctive voice signature conjures something both nostalgic and new. Ireland is a hardworking musician who plays several gigs weekly and puts out new music on a regular basis. Whether playing in front of a small coffee shop crowd or rocking out at festivals and local restaurants her energy and charm is contagious.

Ireland got her start at the age of 13 opening for The Chris Rivers Band. At the age of 15 she became the youngest semi-finalist, since Maren Morris, in the B.W. Stevenson Singer/Songwriter Memorial Contest. She is also an award winning lyricist and songwriter. Ireland has released several EPs and is in April of 2020 plans to release her album, “The Life of Rosemary Ellis.” The album represents her desire is to create an album that tells one woman’s life story through 11 songs.
